

I started working with the women - who suffer social and economic deprivation, and in some cases domestic abuse - in this centre in August 2013. I wrote and we performed a play called 'A Kaunas Catastrophe' in March 2014. I then wrote a second play, 'Welcome to Glasgow', which was performed in August 2014.