

I worked with patients in Leverndale from January until June 2013. I wrote and directed a play called 'Friends United' for them. We performed it for patients and staff in June and it went down very well. It was enormous fun and I would like to thank all the patients and staff who took part in that.